

Sat Dharam Kaur, ND

Healthy Breast Practitioner Program

LIVE AT CCNM

Jan 22-24, 2016

Fri 6-9pm, Sat & Sun 9-5pm

CCNM Continuing Education

Instructor:

Sat Dharam Kaur, ND

A naturopathic protocol for the prevention and treatment of breast cancer!

Gain a comprehensive practical overview of Dr. Sat Dharam Kaur's Healthy Breast Program as described in her books, The Complete Natural Medicine Guide to Breast Cancer, and A Call to Women: The Healthy Breast Program and Workbook. This program was created as a tool to help women both prevent and recover from breast cancer using Kundalini Yoga, diet and detoxification, specific supplements, as well as psychological and spiritual exercises.

Topics Include:

- Detoxification Strategies for Breast Health
- Hormone Balancing for Breast Ailments
- Diagnostic Tests to Evaluate Breast Health
- How to Reduce Environmental Links
- Strategies for Immune Enhancement
- Scientific Basis for the Healthy Breast Diet
- Studies Supporting a Supplementation
- Cancer Prevention and Recovery
- Botanical Medicine and Breast Health
- Other Naturopathic Modalities

REGISTRATION

To register: please use our on-line registration form at www.ccnm.edu/ce_courses

For assistance: please contact student services at 416-498-1255 x245 (M-F 9am-5pm)

Location: 1255 Sheppard Ave East, Toronto ON

Course Fee

ND/Healthcare Practitioner	$439
Early-Bird (ends Jan 8, 2015)	$400
CCNM Alumni Member*	$349
Student	$309

*Register at www.ccnm.edu/membership

ccnm
CANADIAN COLLEGE OF NATUROPATHIC MEDICINE